

Data Protection Statement

We thank you for your interest in our website. We take protection of personal data seriously at VAN HEES GmbH, and we would like to take this opportunity to inform you about data protection policy. Naturally, we observe the statutory regulations of the German Data Protection Act (BDSG), in the Telemedia Act (TMG), as well as other data protection related regulations.

1. Subject of data protection

The subject of data protection covers all personal data. According to BDSG §3 Paragraph 1, any information on the personal or property related circumstances of an individual that has been, or may be identified, is regarded as personal data. This includes information such as your name, postal address, e-mail address or phone number, plus user data such as your IP address if applicable.

2. Collecting and processing personal information

When you visit our website, our web servers are configured to store information on your internet service provider, the referring website you were on before you came to ours, the web pages you viewed on our website, and the date and duration of your visit.

After the contract has been brought to its conclusion, your data will be locked and deleted in compliance with taxation and commercial regulations unless we have your consent for the further use of your data.

3. Purpose of use and transfer of personal data

Your data will only be used for the purpose for which you have consigned it to us. We will not market or transfer your data to any third party in any way. We have sworn our employees to secrecy in handling personal data consigned to us.

4. Information and revocation rights

We will on request furnish you free of charge with any personal data you have stored with us; you do not need to give a reason for your request. You may request a lock, correction or deletion of data we have collected on you at any time, and refuse to have your data included in the anonymous or semi-anonymous data that we collect and store to optimize our website. You may also at any time revoke permission you have previously granted us to collect and use your data; you do not need to give a reason for your request. Please use the contact address given in the legal notices or imprint on our website. If you have any questions about our notes on data protection, or how we process your personal data, please do not hesitate to contact us.

License Agreement

You acknowledge that to download and use protected image material, it is the intellectual property of VAN HEES GmbH. As a VAN HEES customer, you may use these materials free of charge; however, the following conditions apply:

1. Customers may use these materials for their own advertising purposes – that is, for their own printed or online media presentations. The images may not be transferred to any third party, except where absolutely necessary for the customer to hand over the materials to graphic artists, printing companies, ad agencies or the like.
2. The images may only be used together with a copyright notice: ©VAN HEES GmbH.
3. Transferring licenses and sub-licensing are prohibited.
4. This License Agreement shall end automatically with the termination of business relations between the customer and VAN HEES GmbH for whatever reasons. Documents produced during the business relationship may be used until the inventory is depleted. Online media shall be changed within a period of three months.
